Terms of Use:

All Little One Resources are created as free resources for those serving their communities. Little One Resources values artists by paying for artwork licensing and following copyright law (both by noting the artists and their stores on these pages, and by including a credits page -this page- at the end of each packet). Little One Resources also follows all artists' terms of use requirements. This usually includes flattening the pdf so that artists' images cannot be lifted and reused for free.

By downloading, transmitting, or using Little One Resources materials, you agree to use them for:

*Personal Use
*Educational Use
*Community Use
*Not for sale/profit (being reimbursed for printing costs is fine; this is not selling for profit)
*Commercial Use limited to raising funds to serve the community or charity, not for personal profit

For questions, corrections, or suggestions, or to request something in another language, contact Anna at LittleOneResources@gmail.com.
